THE UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS:
A HISTORY OF ONE HUNDRED YEARS

by Harold Whiting Cary

A record of the growth and development of the University of Massachusetts from a land-grant agricultural college to a modern state university. 1962. 255 pp., illus., cloth. $3.75

STUDIES IN THE PHILOSOPHY OF CHARLES SANDERS PEIRCE

Second Series

Edited by Edward C. Moore and Richard S. Robin

A new collection of essays on the founder of pragmatism, covering virtually all aspects of his thought, with new appreciation of his importance as a practicing scientist, and new bibliographical matter. "Useful for the advanced undergraduate, and mandatory for any library that seeks to give appropriate space to American philosophy." Choice, A Magazine for College Libraries. 1964. xiii, 525 pp., front., cloth. $8.50

TWELVE BIRDS

Poems by Herbert A. Kenny, Drawings by Jack Coughlin

"In these poems Herbert Kenny reveals aspects of birds not always touched upon in the literature of ornithology. Jack Coughlin's vigorous and contemporary style is as bold as a blackbird's eye." Massachusetts Audubon. A handsome book for all with an interest in poetry and graphics. 1964. 42 pp., illus., cloth. $5.00

THE SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY OF MENTAL ILLNESS

A Reference Guide

by Edwin D. Driver

An indispensable bibliography of the literature on social and cultural aspects of mental illness and its treatment, in Europe, Africa, Asia, Latin America, and the United States. 1965. xiv, 146 pp., paper. $3.50

THE TALKATIVE PRESIDENT

The Off-the-Record Press Conferences of Calvin Coolidge

Edited by Howard H. Quint and Robert H. Ferrell

"This volume affords the best opportunity yet to appraise Coolidge's ideas on a variety of subjects." Indiana Magazine of History. "An historic find." San Francisco Examiner. 1964. xi, 276 pp., cloth. $6.00

THE SYMPHONIES OF RALPH VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

by Elliott S. Schwartz

"This book flows beautifully and easily; Mr. Schwartz has mastered the art of making analysis readable without in any way detracting from the scholarship of his achievement" —Michael Kennedy. A book for students of the symphony and admirers of Williams. 1964. xiv, 242 pp., front., cloth. $6.50

COME OUT INTO THE SUN: POEMS NEW AND SELECTED

by Robert Francis

"In an age of too many books, printing Robert Francis gives point to publishing" —Marianne Moore. Mr. Francis includes in this book many poems from his three early out-of-print books, selections from The Orb Weaver (Wesleyan), and forty-eight new poems. (cloth) Fall 1965

THE URBANIZATION OF JAPANESE LABOR, 1868-1955

by Thomas O. Wilkinson

The unique experience of the Japanese, in their transition from rural agriculture and handcraft to mechanized urban industry, illuminates the problems and character of rapid industrialization in large parts of the world. Mr. Wilkinson, applying the techniques of demographic analysis to this transition, opens doors for scholars and industrialists with cognate interests. (cloth) Fall 1965

THOREAU IN OUR SEASON

Edited by John Hicks

When first published in The Massachusetts Review, the issue quickly sold out. This collection of essays on the relevance of Thoreau in this time of "silent revolution" is now available again in attractive book form, and includes new poems and two new essays. (cloth) Fall 1965

JEAN GIRAUDOUX. THE THEATRE OF VICTORY AND DEFEAT

by Agnes G. Raymond

The political side of the works of Jean Giraudoux has received little attention. The artistic career of this prominent French dramatist spanned both World Wars. In this book, Mrs. Raymond shows how victory in the first, and defeat in the second, are reflected in his writings. (paper) Fall 1965

THE LYMAN LETTERS:

NEW LIGHT ON EMILY DICKINSON AND HER FAMILY

by Richard B. Sewall

The author of The Vision of Tragedy here presents new biographical information on the Muse of Amherst, by way of letters written by Joseph Bardwell Lyman, suitor of Lavinia Dickinson, and quotes from Emily's previously unpublished notes to Lyman. Emily emerges in a new light against the background of family relationships and the Civil War. (cloth) Fall 1965

A CHECK LIST OF THE PUBLICATIONS OF THOMAS BIRD MOSHER OF PORTLAND, MAINE

compiled by Benton L. Hatch, with an Introductory Essay by Ray Nash

A record of the titles and editions published by "The Portland Pirate." Mosher's was an extremely personal operation; he produced elegant editions of works that interested him, without regard for copyright. This book is published in a limited edition of 500 copies, printed by The Gehenna Press, Northampton. Facsimiles of title pages, printed by letterpress on papers comparable to the originals, and a photograph of Mosher illustrate the book. Probable price, $25.00 (cloth) Fall 1965

BETWEEN WARS & OTHER POEMS

by Anne Halley

Discerning readers of the serious quarterlies have, for the past few years, recognized the brilliance of Miss Halley's poetry. This first book of the distinguished Longview Award winner is an important step toward her inevitable prominence in American letters. (paper) Fall 1965

DIALECTICS AND NIHILISM:

ESSAYS ON LESSING, NIETZSCHE, MANN, AND KAFKA

by Peter Heller

Mr. Heller traces the decline of dialectical striving from transcendence to paralyzing despair, in the case of the philosophical artist who separates himself from objective value. In what is likely to be a controversial book, Peter Heller re-interprets the German metaphysical tradition, and comments on previous evaluations with vigor and insight. (cloth) Fall 1965

SOCIALISM AND THE WORKERS IN MASSACHUSETTS, 1886-1912

by Henry F. Bedford

In this book, Henry F. Bedford has traced the history of the Socialist movement in Massachusetts. Despite local triumphs that seemed in 1900 to herald a bright future, by 1903 counterattacks by the major parties and the Church, plus an increasing disenchantment with socialism among labor groups, had consigned the socialists to futility. An important contribution to labor history and the history of Massachusetts. (cloth) Spring 1966

MAX WEBER'S POLITICAL IDEAS IN THE PERSPECTIVE OF OUR TIME

by Karl Loewenstein. Translated by Richard and Clara Winston

The renewed attention being paid to Max Weber by academicians is evidence of his permanent importance. "Karl Loewenstein's contribution might well come to be regarded as a definitive judgment" —Frederick L. Schuman. (paper) Spring 1966

THE RHETORIC OF TRAGEDY: FORM IN STUART DRAMA

by Charles Osborne McDonald

Mr. McDonald traces the relation of Stuart tragedy to Sophistic rhetoric and the dialectical structure of thought which was the legacy of this rhetoric. "This work shows a fine comprehension of Renaissance tragedy, and contributes notably to our understanding of the subject. One of the strengths of this book is that it focuses the work of other scholars on the matter at hand, thereby explicating, to a degree, the earlier scholarly work itself" —Walter J. Ong, S.J. (cloth) Spring 1966
